

Pre-K, Kindergarten and 1st Grade Extravaganza with Hilary Statum & Adam Peterson

Opening Session (Hilary and Adam)

Meaningful Motivation & Management

Who doesn't love M&M's, right? In this inspiring session Hilary and Adam team up to share their favorite ways to Motivate & Manage the students in their classrooms in order to create a family-like atmosphere and functional place to learn! Hilary and Adam's ideas will help you put structured expectations in place (hard candy shell), while also building relationships and a comfortable community (sweet chocolate center) within your classroom. Motivation + Management = Learning Success!

Science of Reading 101 (Hilary Statum)

Are you overwhelmed when it comes to the Science of Reading? Hilary will share her classroom experience implementing research-based strategies. You'll learn what you are already doing that works and gather new engaging ideas for small groups. Hilary will also reveal the importance of using Sound Walls in your classroom. Learn how to make an interactive Sound Wall that your students refer to daily. Return to the classroom with centers aligned with the SoR approach, a huge freebie full of best practice tips, and confidence in your ability to rock the Science of Reading!

Math Is More Than A Worksheet! (Adam Peterson)

In this session, Adam proves that Math is so much more than a worksheet! Through games, music, and movement, Adam shows you how to help your students meet math standards and exceed their goals while having more fun than they ever imagined. Get out your manipulatives and get ready for math excitement!

STEM: Simplified (Hilary and Adam)

Trying to "fit it all in" is one of the hardest parts of the teaching profession but adding in STEM projects doesn't have to be stressful! Learn simple tips to incorporate STEM projects into your ELA and Math instructional blocks and see videos of students completing the projects. Hilary and Adam's STEM: Simplified will get you up and moving with hands-on activities that use items from around your classroom and are easy enough to implement the day you return to your classroom. Ready? Set? STEM!
