ON A ROLL TO LITERACY

GAMES for Whole Class and Differentiated Literacy Centers

A virtual after-school workshop!

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND!:

Games are easy to differentiate and integrate into your literacy program; whole class and also perfect for small differentiated centers. The ideas are also easily transferable to literacy backpacks for home practice!

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN:

Come prepared to play Jane's favorite games that work on the following concepts: learning the alphabet and its' sounds, word patterns and families, rhyme and spelling simple CVC words, vocabulary development, working with multi-syllable words, vowels, word play with synonyms, antonyms, questions, and more. The games incorporate literacy dice, letter tiles, and word decks and children's literature. Your handout will contain Black Line Masters so that you can play along, as well. Jane will share many easy to integrate dollar store finds to adapt the games and activities.

MATERIALS YOU WILL TAKE HOME:

Handouts will contain gameboards that can be used right away in your classroom. As you prep your students for year end assessment, the ideas for developing vocabulary and word knowledge will be perfect for providing engaged practice to your students.

COME PREPARED TO PLAY - CUT OUT YOUR LETTERS, BRING SOME DICE AND GET READY TO GET YOUR LITERACY PROGRAM ROLLING!
