

The Social Studies C3 Framework: "A Door to the World" with Craig Gaska

Come and learn how the C3 Framework will totally change your approach to teaching the social sciences. Dr. Craig Gaska will lead you in discovering how to make college, career, and civic life come alive in your classroom.

Workshop attendees will:

- Explore the "inquiry arc" that frames the way students study social studies.
- Learn how the C3 Framework is organized and used for lesson and unit planning.
- Discover how the C3 Framework aligns with and supports the Common Core.
- Consider and discuss the suggested activities found in the Psychology, Sociology, and Anthropology appendices and how they apply to you.
- Practice creating authentic assessments for the C3 Framework.

The C3 Social Studies framework invites you and your students to walk through a door leading to a personal experience with social studies that will create new levels of excitement and engagement that will last a lifetime.
