

K-8 Reading Strategies & Resources for In-Person & Remote Learning

Join real classroom teacher, Dr. Brandy Hempen, in reviewing different strategies and resources to increase student achievement in reading whether teaching in-person or in the remote or blended learning environments.

Featuring
Brandy Hempen

Real classroom videos, classroom discussions, and student examples are embedded throughout this workshop discussing the following topics:

- Increasing fluency and comprehension
- Incorporating ready-to-use reading resources
- Reaching struggling readers
- Differentiating reading lessons
- Implementing classroom management strategies
- Managing daily classroom procedures
- Setting classroom expectations
- Creating meaningful, standards-based assessments

All sections are online and self-paced with the opportunity to earn 5 Professional Credit Hours. Your PD hours are granted as you engage in the activities embedded throughout the presentation. Participants have 90 days from the start date to complete the training. You may start the course anytime between December 15 - March 15, 2021.
