

K-8 Math Strategies and Resources for In-Person and Remote Learning

featuring Brandy Hempen

Join real classroom teacher, Dr. Brandy Hempen, in reviewing different strategies and resources to increase student achievement in mathematics whether teaching in-person or in the remote or blended learning environments.

Real classroom videos, classroom discussions, and student examples are embedded throughout this workshop discussing the following topics:

- Incorporating ready-to-use math resources
- Reaching struggling mathematicians
- Differentiating math lessons
- Implementing classroom management strategies
- Managing daily classroom procedures
- Setting classroom expectations
- Creating meaningful, standards-based assessments
