COACHING IN THE CLASSROOM: HELPING STUDENTS REFLECT, REFINE AND REFRAME

Virtual Live and Available Recorded For 30 Days!

Students come to us with a wide range of experiences and skills. In the post Covid classroom, teachers need to have a multitude of skills to help support students academically, socially and emotionally. Coaching students empowers them to grow and make changes while identifying obstacles that can get in their way. Coaching creates a positive classroom culture and supports student reflection.

In this 4 hour professional development workshop, we will explore the fundamentals of coaching, how they connect with best practice and improve student performance, behavior and engagement.

Session 1 (2 hours) - How can coaching empower students to grow academically?

Session 2 (2 hours) - How can coaching empower students to grow socially and emotionally?

Who should attend?

Teachers, Instructional Coaches, Administrators

Outcomes:

- Understand coaching fundamentals.
- Understand how coaching supports growth.
- Connect coaching with best practice.
- Connect the art of coaching with on-going support for students.
- Identify how coaching can improve student performance, behavior and engagement.
- Create a plan to consistently support students through coaching.
