The Intertwining of SEL and Personalized Learning

SEL Summit 2018
July 23rd
9:55am - 10:55am
Centering Activity
Mindful start to the day

1) Three deep cleansing breaths

2) A brief reflection on someone that you're grateful for

3) An attitude goal for the day

4) Open your eyes, put your feet on the floor. Realize that you have some weight and substance and get to work!

We see education as the social justice issue of our time and believe that by ensuring equity, access, and excellence through school choice that we can make a significant and positive impact in the lives of children.

In all of our schools, we rely on proven strategies and state-of-the-art technology to create rich learning environments for students and teachers, while making effective use of available resources.

ACADEMICS | Learning Model - Social Emotional Learning

Distinctive Schools’ learning model, which aims to prepare capable, high-achieving, future-ready students, is intentionally delivered through three core lenses:

- Personalized Learning
- Social Emotional Learning
- Diverse Learning

COMMUNITY
To ensure that students are available for learning, they must feel a strong sense of community and belonging, which is vital to students’ sense of self, mental health, and overall wellbeing.

SOCIAL JUSTICE
Distinctive Schools strives to reconcile the education debt by providing its students with learning experiences and opportunities that are comparable or better to those experiences in other economic environments and is invested in restorative justice practices.

MINDSET
To assist students in their development of positive mindsets, particularly when faced with challenges, Distinctive Schools created a PRIDE Framework to convey the attributes of a Distinctive Schools learner: Problem-solving, Responsibility, Integrity, Drive, and Empathy.

CULTURE
Distinctive Schools has achieved a healthy, positive, and joyful learning culture and aims to strengthen students’ social, emotional, and cognitive capacity by explicitly developing their self-regulation, teamwork, problem solving, responsibility, initiative, and empathy skills.
ACADEMICS | Learning Model - Diverse Learning

Distinctive Schools’ learning model, which aims to prepare capable, high-achieving, future-ready students, is intentionally delivered through three core lenses:

- Personalized Learning
- Social Emotional Learning
- Diverse Learning

SPECIAL EDUCATION

- Equitably engage all Diverse Learners in an accessible, rigorous, and developmentally appropriate curriculum which ignites curiosity and facilitates deeper learning regardless of disability or learning environment

ENGLISH LEARNERS

- Capitalize on the unique and cultural attributes of our students and ensure that our classrooms are culturally and linguistically responsive

WE SEEK TO

WE SERVE

- Learning and intellectual disabilities
- Autism
- Speech and language impairment, and more

- Various home languages
- Wide variety of language proficiency
- Students, families, and communities alike

WE PROVIDE

- Strong, inclusive co-teaching model, where students with disabilities are instructed alongside their general education peers
- Special education and general education teachers sharing responsibility for planning, instructing, and assessing all learners
- Differentiated service models to meet individual students’ needs, which may include both “push-in” and “pull-out” supports

- Opportunities for all students to demonstrate proficiency in English while also nurturing students’ home language when possible
- Support from either an ESL or Bilingual certified teacher to work alongside teachers in mainstream classrooms to support content and language goals
- Student centered learning approaches and scientifically-based research to inform instructional strategies
Our Approach
● Amazing pockets of SEL and PL!
● Deep interest in changing practice
● Varying understanding and practice from campus to campus and classroom to classroom
● Zero tolerance discipline code

Personalized Learning Framework

The continuum breaks down the personalized learning framework components to a continuum to provide educators a way to self evaluate where they are in their personalized learning journey and help provide guidance on personalizing learning further.

Personalized Learning Framework (Working DRAFT)

All classrooms in Distinctive Schools create individual learning profiles that help students follow their own paths through a competency based progression, in flexible learning environments that deploy space, time and personnel creatively.

Learner profiles are continuously revisited based off the student’s growth and development and are centered around real-world application skills.</td>
<td>All Distinctive Schools, students will have consistent access to Personalized Learning Plans to help guide their learning. The learner is always at the center, taking ownership of their learning through collaboration with teachers in order to create multiple and flexible paths through content and reflection. The teacher, alongside parents and community, adopts a role of a coach, guiding students in their learning.</td>

<td>- Students will partner with teachers to create their own developmentally appropriate, varied learning experiences involving multiple resources that support and lead students to mastery. Additionally, teachers will mentor and nurture a willingness to take academic and social risks within and beyond their ZPD.</td>
<td>- Each student is sufficiently challenged to higher levels of thinking through scaffolded support to ensure students are receiving instruction at their individual level while simultaneously getting instruction at their grade level to ensure a deeper level of understanding aligned to rigorous standards.</td>

<td>- Through self-reflection, peer and mentor reflection, students determine what they already know and what they need to learn. Students create rigorous goals and learning experiences for themselves based on progress, interests and individual data. Teachers utilize backward planning, analysis of student data, and focus on desired areas of proficiency to facilitate small group and one-on-one learning</td>
<td>- Students demonstrate competency at a pace personalized to their interest, readiness, and learning style as measured through clearly defined expectations and assessment criteria.</td>

Learner profiles promote a growth mindset by recognizing 3-4 learner strengths and challenges.
Motivations

Students drive the creation of the learner profile in collaboration with their family and teacher, resulting in a motivational tool that supports their academic and SEL growth.

Student motivation stems from the awareness of their data, learner preference style, learning style, and thinking style, and encourages students to access multiple pathways to achieve their goals.

Filling Out Your Learner Profile

Jot down on a piece of paper or device:

- What are your professional strengths?
- What is your ideal work setting when working independently?
- What are stressors in your life?
- What do you do to relax when you are stressed?
- Who do you turn to when you are upset?
- What do you do to support your colleagues?
